The Natalie Wong
Piano Studio

My Approach...

In my studio, I try to provide a fun and challenging environment that allows my students to master the fundamentals of music. I accomplish this through:

- A technical approach that respects the biomechanics of the body
- Private piano lessons at all levels, from young beginners to college - level conservatory preparation
- Parental involvement in the learning process

Regular performances in group recitals

- Participation in MTAC Certificate of Merit programs, if desired

I believe that with good training and correct information, anyone can learn to play the piano well. My studio fosters a non-competitive exchange between students that is mutually supportive and promotes friendship. In this way, I hope to share my passion in music with all my students so that they will experience the joy and love of music as well.

Pianist NATALIE WONG was awarded the First Prize in the California division of the National Federation of Music Clubs' Biennial Piano Competition and the Lucile Parrish Ward Scholarship for the Brevard Summer Music Festival. Ms. Wong accompanies the Pacific Chorale Children's Choruses and has also served as the pianist for the UCI Symphony Orchestra. An avid chamber musician and accompanist, she has participated in master classes of soprano Ruth Golden and the noted coach and accompanist, Martin Katz. Her festival participation includes the Aspen Music Festival and School, Song Fest and the Taubman Institute in Massachusetts. Ms. Wong has performed throughout Southern California, recently at Richard Nixon Sundays at Two Concert Series, Newport Beach Sunday Musicale Series, Pasadena Tuesday Musicale Concert Series and Saddleback Chamber Music Performance. Ms. Wong holds a B. Mus. degree from the University of California, Irvine, studying piano performance with Nina Scolnik and pianist Greg Dempster. She currently teaches the joy of music and piano to students of all ages and levels in Laguna Hills and nearby cities, CA. Her first album, "Restoration", is available on iTunes.
